

The Dairy Story

*Cottage
in the Dales*

The Dairy is a holiday cottage in the Yorkshire Dales.

This means it is a place away from home where I can stay, eat, sleep and spend time with my family.

When I visit The Dairy ...
Outside I might see:

The Cottage in the Dales sign

The Dairy building made of stone

The green fields and hills

Diane and Andrew who own the Dairy

When I visit The Dairy ...
Inside I might see:

Cottage
in the Dales

The lounge with a sofa and a fire

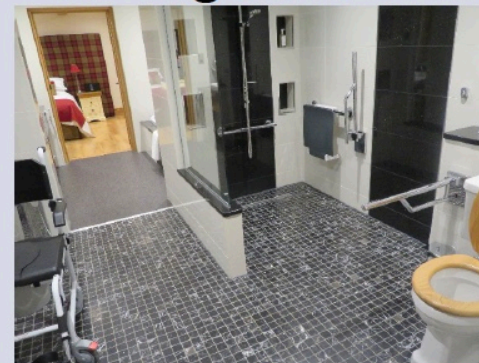

The kitchen made of wood

The big bedroom

The big bathroom

When I visit The Dairy ...
I might hear:

*Cottage
in the Dales*

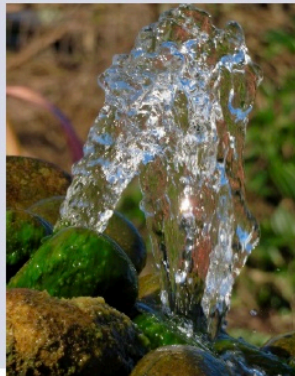

The cows and sheep in the fields

The wind blowing through the trees

The water feature in the garden

The television in the lounge

When I visit The Dairy ...
Inside I might touch or feel:

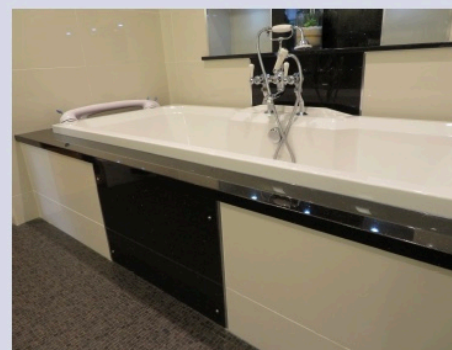

*Cottage
in the Dales*

The smooth floor

The warm water in the bath or shower

The soft towels and sheets

The warmth from the fire

When I visit The Dairy ...
Inside I might taste:

*Cottage
in the Dales*

Chocolate and biscuits when we arrive

The local cheese

The water from the taps

The food cooked when we are there

When I visit The Dairy ...
I might smell:

*Cottage
in the Dales*

The cows in the field next door

The smoky smell of the fire in the lounge

The special soap in the bathroom

The food cooking for our meals

Most of all, The Dairy is a place where I can feel safe and have fun with my family or whoever is with me.
